

COMMUNICATION STUDIES

Since effective communication is essential to most aspects of successful human endeavor, the Communication Studies (<https://www.bethel.edu/undergrad/academics/communication/>) programs focus on achieving understanding in human thought, activity, and interaction. Students are given opportunities to create and test ideas, develop individual abilities, and gain competence and confidence.

The programs housed in Communication Studies (<https://www.bethel.edu/undergrad/academics/communication/>) help students acquire knowledge and increase abilities that enable them to function effectively in every area of their public and private lives. The department seeks to prepare skilled communicators for professional careers and Christian service, providing vital background for the fields of business, teaching, law, public relations, government, social work, television, radio, corporate media departments, and various church ministries.

The faculty of Communication Studies is committed to the importance of cross-cultural experiences for all majors. Students are encouraged to attend an off-campus intercultural program for a January session or semester.
