

B.A. IN ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

Major in Environmental Studies (B.A)

Choose one of the following sequences: 4

BIO122 Introduction to Organismic
& 122D Biology
and Introduction to Organismic
Biology Lab ¹

BIO126 Integrative Biology and Global & BIO127 Health
and Integrative Biology and Global Health Lab

BIO330 Ecology 4
& BIO331 and Ecology Lab

ENS104 Environment and Humanity 4
& 104D and Environment Humanity Lab
¹

ENS205L Sustainable Living ¹ 3

ENS399 Introduction to Research 1

ENS481 Internship in Environmental 3
Studies

ENS496 Research in Environmental 1
Studies

ENS498 Seminar in Environmental 1
Studies

ENS499 Symposium 0

Choose 15 credits from the following: 15

ENS305K Transforming Technology, 1
Environmental Perspectives ¹

ENS330K Science, Values, and the Making 1
of Environmental Policy ¹

ENS335K Environmental Ethics ¹

ENS341K Environmental Writing ¹

GES307K Natural Resources: Use Them 1
but Don't Lose Them ¹

GES318KZ Ecology in the Tropics: Natural 1
History and Future Prospects ¹

GES326K Economic Botany ¹

HIS/GEO History and the Human 1
320K Environment ¹

Six additional 3- or 4-credit courses from one 18-23 or two departments. At least three courses must be 300 level or above

Major 54-59

General Education 49-50

Electives 19-26

Total Credits 122-135

¹ This course meets a General Education requirement.

With permission of the program director, appropriate courses taken in off-campus programs may substitute for those listed above.

Students are strongly urged to meet the "M" General Education requirement by taking PSY230M.