

MINOR IN ASIAN STUDIES

Minor in Asian Studies

HIS205U	History of China, Japan, and Korea ¹	3
	or HIS206I History of India and Its Neighbors
	Competency in an Asian language ²	8
	Choose 7-15 credits from the following:	7-15
ARH/REL 201	Religion and Art in Asia
HIS205U	History of China, Japan, and Korea (if not selected above) ¹
HIS206U	History of India and Its Neighbors (if not selected above) ¹
HIS372	Topics in Global History (Asian topic or focus) ^{3,4}
PHI365	Topics in Philosophy (Asian topic or focus) ^{3,4}
PHI375G	Asian Philosophy ¹
POS202U	Introduction to International Relations (Asian focus) ^{1,4}
POS241L	Revolution and Political Development (Asian focus) ^{1,4}
REL205U	Religions of India, China and Japan ¹
SOC372G	Religion in Society ^{1,4}
REL/THE 401	Christianity and the World's Religions (Asian focus) ⁴
Total Credits		18-26

- ¹ This course meets a General Education requirement.
- ² Coursework or other experience equivalent to a first-year college course in that language.
- ³ "Asian topic" means that the student can apply this course to the minor only when an Asian topic is offered.
- ⁴ "Asian focus" means that the instructor must have Asian expertise and students must contract with the instructor early in the term to do the majority of their work on Asia. At least 50% of the student's work in this course, including term papers, must have Asian content.

Consult the registrar prior to enrolling in courses taken elsewhere for transfer to Bethel.

Consult the Asian studies advisor regarding language competency and program guidance.