

GENERAL INFORMATION

The College of Arts and Sciences is Bethel's undergraduate college for recent high school graduates and transfer students.

This academic catalog relates to academic programs and communicates academic requirements, policies, and procedures. The student handbook outlines university procedures and expectations of students.

Every student is to be familiar with and will be held responsible for conforming to the expectations contained in "A Covenant for Life Together at Bethel," academic regulations, and campus procedures as stated in these four publications, as well as information published in the Bethel E-Announcements, which are distributed electronically three times per week during the academic year.

It is the official policy and commitment of Bethel University not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, gender, or disability in its educational programs, admissions, or employment practices. The president of Bethel University has designated the director of human resources as the compliance officer for the institution. Inquiries regarding compliance may be directed to:

The Compliance Officer, Bethel University
