

GENERAL INFORMATION

This academic catalog relates to the academic components of the BUILD program (<https://www.bethel.edu/academics/build/>) and communicates academic requirements, policies, and procedures. The BUILD student handbook outlines university procedures and expectations for living and learning at Bethel.

Every student is to be familiar with and will be held responsible for conforming to the expectations contained in "A Covenant for Life Together at Bethel (<http://catalog.bethel.edu/build/general-information/university-commitments/whole-holy-persons/>)", the BUILD catalog, as well as the BUILD student handbook.

It is the official policy and commitment of Bethel University (<https://www.bethel.edu>) not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, gender, or disability in its educational programs, admissions, or employment practices. The president of Bethel University (<https://www.bethel.edu>) has designated the vice president of people and organizational development as the compliance officer for the institution. Inquiries regarding compliance may be directed to:
