Publications

Bethel seeks to communicate requirements and opportunities to students through several publications. The first of these were included in the application and required materials. This academic catalog is the second. It provides details about academic programs and institutional policies. The third publication is the Student Handbook, which outlines university procedures, expectations for students, and student services. Every student should become familiar with and will be held responsible for the academic regulations and campus procedures as stated in these three publications. Students should also know and are accountable for the Bethel Community Expectations (<https://catalog.bethel.edu/adult-professional-studies/general-information/bethel-community-expectations/>), the Professional Expectations and Community Conduct Agreement (<https://confluence.bethel.edu/pages/viewpage.action?pageId=23724872>), and information published in the Bethel E-Announcements, which are distributed electronically three times a week via email.

Within this catalog, the Academic Information section and the Academic Programs and Descriptions section are prescriptive and apply to all students while enrolled under this year's catalog requirements. All other sections are descriptive and apply during the academic year covered by this catalog.

Catalog Information

All listed courses and programs are current at the time of printing but are subject to change without notice based on enrollment, faculty availability, and other considerations. Information in this catalog is not contractual. Bethel reserves the right to withdraw a course or program or to limit its enrollment. Bethel reserves the right to add a new program and related courses to this catalog after publication, upon approval from the related state and/or accrediting organizations. In this event, the new program and courses will be provided, with their effective terms, at:

Catalog Updates

During the course of the academic year, catalog information may change. Any required changes made within the academic year will only be reflected in the online catalog, which may include addenda to the print catalog. The print catalog serves as an archive of catalog information available at the beginning of the academic year. The printable version of the catalog is available for download on the main catalog page (<http://catalog.bethel.edu/>) where there is a listing of the current catalogs for the various schools at Bethel University, several PDF archived files of previous years' catalogs, and any catalog addenda. Together, the print version of the catalog and the online catalog serve as the official record of any catalog changes.
